Description:

After living in Vienna for a half year, we realized that Albert had taught everyone in the country to make his salad! But even if it's not unique, it's a great salad!

Ingredients:

potato	3 medium new
white vinegar	1/3 cup
vegetable oil	1 tablespoon
sweet onion	1, chopped coarsely
sugar	1 1/2 tablespoons
water	1/3 cup
salt	1/8 teaspoon
pepper	1/4 teaspoon

Instructions:

Peel, cook, and, when cool, slice the potatoes. Toss the potatoes with a sprinkling of vinegar and then add the white onion with a liberal coating of oil. Mix in the rest of the vinegar so that the salad is quite wet. Mix sugar with the same amount of water as the vinegar that was added. This mixture should be sweet, but not syrupy. Add to the salad. The salad should be sloppy at this point. Season with salt and pepper to taste.
